

PRESTI & COMPANY, INC.

Mechanical, Electrical & Plumbing Engineering Design Services

Electrical Design Engineer

Facilities Electrical Engineer with experience in commercial office, retail, renovations, and tenant fit up design projects and various other special assignments. Six years experience required with extensive knowledge of the ICC construction codes, code and plan review. Required skills: Electrical power design, Utility system analysis, Electrical distribution, Low voltage Telecom systems, Control systems, and design of emergency/standby power system installations. Must be able to compute demand loads and complete conceptual electrical designs. AutoCAD experience and experience with medical facilities required.

The position will involve electrical design on a variety of facility design and analysis projects. Other skills required include but not limited to Concept Design, Schematic Design, Design Development and Document Creation (CD) Phase, and AutoCAD experience required. Must be familiar with Construction operations and standard commercial construction practice. LEED Certification a plus. Sterling area.

Candidate must have BS degree in Electrical or Power Engineering or related field and have 5 years experience in consulting engineering. Candidate must have good communication, and organization skills.

Candidate must have the ability to balance priorities and work effectively in a team-based, fast-paced, pressure-filled environment. Other responsibilities include maintenance of project documentation, interface with client, assist in support and development of company wide standards and productivity tools, and member of quality team.

Professional Competencies

- Sound Electrical engineering skills.
- Good writing skills.
- Experience with MEP coordination.
- Knowledge of codes.
- Excellent communicator.

Presti & Company, Inc.

45915 Maries Road
Suite 136
Dulles, VA 20166

Phone: 703-430-4757
Fax: 703-430-1077
Email: hr@presti.com

PRESTI
THE POWER OF INFORMATION